Arr: August 21st, Gander to New York. AOA.

For the third time since December, the usual nice ride to Idlewild Airport with Frances . . . This time in a 1950 car with automatic drive and only clocking about 400 miles, leaving it to Frances to 'break in' . . . The double-decked Stratocruiser with Capt. Bergerson, skipper, poised for the takeoff . . . Photographed again, this time with Frances . . . A beautiful take-off at 3:15, only 15 minutes after schedule . . . Only 27 passengers instead of 60, due to cancellations caused by the Korea situation . . . With a light load and favorable winds, skipped the Gander stop and flew direct to Shannon . . . Almost breaking record for flight making it in 10 hours and 11 minutes, flying at 25,000 feet . . . Distribution of 'holographed' 'Flagship News Flashes' compiled by International News Service to passengers on board, another American Airlines nicety . . . Looking at it now, most significant of 12 news flashes is dated Washington . . . Chairman Fred Vinson stating that Soviet Russia might attack at any time and warned that Truman's 10 and a half billion dollar request should be regarded as a minimum . . . The invitation to ride in the cockpit accepted with eagerness, as the last time I did, it was almost dark . . . Still completely fascinated by the quite business-like handling of the ship by the crew . . . (For details see 21st Catalog, June 2-3 Sale) . . . Landing and takeoff at Shannon for London routine . . . In London, a beautiful day greeted me . . . Had expected to take 'Boat Train' from London to Paris direct—but fatigue made me decide on plane flight . . . With several hours to plane time had lunch at the 'Wooden Horse,' a quaint sidewalk eating place, but apparently fresh out of napkins . . . Noticed garbage trucks with markings, 'For Tea Leaves, Soot and Ashes Only.'

Arrival at Le Bourget Field in Paris, provided me with many interesting snapshots . . . The wild bus trip from airfield to Terminal makes our American jockeys seem tame . . . Can't complain however, as all European transport from airfield to city and vice-versa is free . . . Meeting with my sister, former WAC studying in Paris and getting married on the morrow . . . The ride with her and her maid of honor thru Parisien streets in a 'fiacre' enroute first to the 'maire's' office . . . The wedding luncheon at a chalet about 40 miles from Paris in breath-taking surroundings of flowers, lake and trees . . . The reception that evening to a large group reminiscent of a league of nations . . . The unusual wedding cake, a three-foot Eiffel Tower, surmounted by a miniature bride and groom and American and French flags . . . Sightseeing next day—taking in The Flea Market covering acres of ground . . . The old section composed of little shops while the annex has merchandise displayed on the ground . . . Anything second hand may be found there from used hair pins to paintings by immortals . . . The trip up the 'cliff' to the Church of the Sacre-Coeur de Montmartre . . . A siesta at the Place de Tertre on the butte of Montmartre, the most photographed and painted scene in France . . . A look-in at the Chez Lady Patachan and Le Lupin Agile (The Jumping Rabbit) . . . The futility of trying to board a bus—when you think you are next in line, you find that one is supposed to take a little numbered ticket giving your place in line . . . Trying to buy a drink with some francs I had taken in at my store, only to find them N. G. . . . Packing my bags at the Palais d'Orsay Hotel to leave by train for Frankfurt . . . Munching sandwiches in my first class compartment drowning morsels with Perrier Water . . . No diner on train during July and August.

Arriving at Rhine-Main Field and the greeting by American Overseas Hostess Bruni, as I stepped off plane . . . Bruni was my first contact in Berlin back in December that cold dreary night . . . A beautiful lagoon with man-made falls separates the field and a gay out-door eating place . . . The colored tables, chairs, umbrellas and flags of the operating airlines made this a beautiful sight . . . Loafed in Frankfurt over Sunday awaiting the arrival of my sister and husband who had left Paris in a 1932 Ford . . . The three of us dined that evening at the Casino—swank American installation that may bring nostalgia to many a GI . . . News from the Railroad that my bathrobe left in my compartment had been found . . . Next day boarded plane for Berlin.

Meeting Capt. Miller Hayes, was invited to ride in cockpit to Berlin. Passed over Dessau, former Junkers plane plant now in Russian zone, with hundreds of planes 'ready' . . . The thrill of landing while in the cockpit strapped to an auxiliary seat . . . The impressive ceremony by captain and co-pilot in opening little windows and planting American and Bonn Republic Flags at sides of plane . . . The long taxi-ing to the covered apron of Templehof Airfield . . . The nice feeling at being greeted by the same faces of manager, customs, and porter . . . The only change is a woman police who guides passengers from plane to screening center . . . Her military strides made some passengers go on the double . . . The unmistakable robe of Summer in Berlin as I taxied from airport to hotel . . . The many outdoor sidewalk cafes—somehow I had thought this a Parisian institution . . . Mine host at the hotel giving me the best room, just completed, with shower, bidet, couch, desk, etc. . . . A simple notice of arrival brought 150 letters offering to sell coins, stamps, art objects, etc., as well as seeing over 100 people in two days . . . Another letter, not numismatic, stated that the writer with two other girls, 'frankly were seeking American husbands' and solicited my help in circulating the three pictures enclosed, upon my return to the states . . . I was enjoined to do this 'in the interests of Humanity'—If interested consult 'Shotgun Katen' . . . The wonderful help given me by AOA manager in getting reservations to Munich and Vienna and return against the odds of vacationing thousands.

Flight to Munich and a room in the same hotel, The Four Seasons . . . After washing up for dinner a stroll down Maximilian Street several blocks and running into a Commie open air meeting . . . In the plaza before the shattered Opera House were about 1000 people listening to speaker for the F. D. J. (Free German Youth) . . . Police trucks began forming a semi-circle around the crowd, and after setting up their own loud-speaker asked assemblage to disperse in two's and three's . . . Commie loud speaker drowning out police loud speaker . . . After ticklish situation involving removal of wrong (verboten) flag, crowd dispersed . . . Only one American GI noted, and after talking with him found he had only arrived from states previous day . . . My girl Friday from America House proved an invaluable guide . . . A visit (with permission of the tenants) thru the oldest house; over 600 years old . . . Up the tower and below in the dungeon where prisoners were kept . . . A tunnel under several streets leads to the old Rathaus (City Hall) . . . Awaiting 11:00 o'clock to see the figures under the clock in the tower of the new Rathaus perform . . . Promptly on the dot music starts playing and the two tiers of figures make two rounds . . . Trumpeters, royalty, warriors on charging white steeds, courtesans, musicians, etc., etc. . . . The spectacle lasts twelve minutes and does a fine job of tying up traffic in the main square . . . Rebuilt with Marshall Plan money, I am told; if true, it was good thinking, for this clock has a spot on the heart of every Munchen citizen . . . Snapshots of Nymphenburg Castle from a bridge crossing the lagoon . . . The thick double-rich 'Deluxe Malted Milk' at the PX bar and dinner at the Officers Club in the Haus der Kunst . . . The night spots including Shubert bei Inga and the Broadway-Bar (where you shall know a Taxi-dance girl by the red rose she is wearing) . . . The choice of a Mosel wine called Krover Nacktarsch (hope you can't read Deutsch) . . . The miles of walking to look at a collection; house number 94 and house number 104, my destination, being at least three miles apart . . . After following open sewer along a country lane arrived at location only to be greeted by a very unfriendly hund . . . The large Negro contingent with their own GI club . . . The scores of German girls waiting to be invited inside . . . Sunday in Munich and a visit to a city park . . . Tables spread out under the trees and couples dancing on an improvised dance floor at this Tea Dance . . . Was told the better citizens patronize these places . . . Saw the Munich version of Philip Morris—only it was for Collie cigarettes . . . Just before leaving Munich, the receipt of a second letter from my second best girl in New Haven, Sarah . . . A regretful departure from this delightful city, preceded by a fine dinner at the summer-garden airport restaurant.

PLEASE NOTE: These Bavarian Talers, as well as those of the other states are becoming extremely scarce. My third trip to Europe resulted in few new acquisitions of the rarer talers. Condition, too, was not as choice as found in my first trip last December. Each succeeding month's sale produces higher prices realized on many of the items. If interested in acquiring a complete set, do not let some of the scarce coins in this catalog slip by you.

A Report to friends interested in a FREE Hobby:

I had expected, and I had hoped, to be able to report that the American Numismatic Association (through its officers) were to work for better understanding with its members. I am sorry to have to report otherwise.

No attempt will be made to highlight any statements herein, but the simple truth will be stated quietly and objectively.

Sheldon, Moss, Reagan, et. al. are afraid of an investigation of charges made months ago. They refused to have a meeting with the writer at the Milwaukee Convention. They refused to allow him to enter the first meeting of the convention, but rescinded the order for the second and third meetings. However, he was enjoined from speaking being warned in the presence of a city policeman that he would be cited for disorderly conduct.

An impartial member, Max Schwartz an attorney, attempted to bring both sides together. He was unsuccessful in arranging a meeting with me present. The outcome was that if I behaved myself the Board would entertain a letter asking for my reinstatement. As I am not guilty of any wrong I refused to go along with this idea. My stand was for reinstatement under the so-called charges which led to my expulsion. These charges to be tried by an impartial committee or the American Arbitration Society.

Sheldon, Moss, Reagan, et. al. said NO. To me their answer is clear. The airing of their charges would prove my charges against them. Which brings us back to the original contention months ago THAT THEY DO NOT WANT AN INVESTIGATION.

I have learned that of the 11 charges (statements printed by me) the one which influenced my expulsion the most was as follows:

3h 'Something inexplicable happened when Mr. Blake serving twenty-seven years received 2,373 votes when elected (when the votes were probably not all counted) in 1948 and only 616 when defeated in the last election. Note on page 671 October 1948 Numismatist—Gettys and Reagan each got over 3,000 votes. Sheldon, Klein and Hammer all approximately 2,300. Who stopped counting votes?'

At the Milwaukee Convention Dr. John H. Wild of Buffalo, N. Y., publicly admitted making that statement. It will be interesting to see whether Sheldon, Moss, et. al. have the guts and stupidity to expel Dr. Wild. Perhaps, they will feel, that if the statement was strong enough for my expulsion, it is equally strong enough for Dr. Wild's expulsion. Or perhaps it all depends on who makes the statement, such as the one made by Mr. George H. Blake in a letter to me, in speaking of the 1949 elections. Mr. Blake said, 'I cannot but feel that there was some underhandedness going on for at one of the past elections I received more votes than the president, who was elected.' Incidentally, at the Milwaukee Convention Mr. Blake was honored by being made Treasurer Emeritus.

I now say I cannot but feel that there was some underhandedness going on at the 1950 elections. I hastily add here however that the Ballot Committee at this Convention and at previous ones are honest and above reproach and suspicion. The trouble is with the system which invites suspicion and possible corruption. At the convention people were asking if it were possible to print extra ballots. People were asking whether it were possible for the General Secretary to open ballots, and substitute new ballots favoring one side or the other. People were asking if extra ballot envelopes could be printed and the substituted ballots inserted and sealed. All of these things are possible because the ballot envelopes are given to the Ballot Committee, NOT THE UNOPENED OUTSIDE ENVELOPES WHICH COME THROUGH THE MAILS. Why then, could not Sheldon, Moss and the Board have avoided suspicion by following the suggestion of The Committee of Eighty, that the ballots be printed, tabulated and counted by an outside agency?

Personal observations: The tears in the eyes of a long-time member coming out of the meeting when the election returns were announced . . . The resignations of members pouring in—many of these would have gone in sooner were it not for the Committee of Eighty . . . The offer, two and a half days before the election announcement, to wager us two to one that we would lose by two to one . . . Inside dope? . . . The inability to get copies of bids submitted by the various printers, although the fair-haired dealer on the West Coast has a full set . . . The tip-off before going to Europe that my reservation for rooms at the convention hotel would 'get lost' . . . The tip proved true, even with a written hotel reservation, but luckily I had made another . . . The rumor that part of the Editor's job will go to Reagan, thus giving him a chance to get more money . . . Perhaps this move because the Editor fought against inclusion of controversial matter in the Numismatist . . . The three pages in the August issue by that Chicago person and the letter by George Blake included on orders by Sheldon . . . The loss again last year of 1,320 members, added to 1,726 lost the previous year or a total of 3,046 members lost . . . For the second consecutive year a percentage loss of 4.4 % as against gains in 1945-6 of 21.9 %, 1946-7 of 18.6 % and 1947-8 of 15.8 % . . . The 700 odd proxies turned in personally by Mr. Pittman found in the waste paper basket by Harold Klein . . . The statement by Reagan that he didn't know how they got there . . . The announcement by the Chairman of the Resolutions Committee that every Resolution, whether endorsed by the Committee or not had been read at the meetings . . . Every resolution? . . . Wonder what happened to resolutions asking for my reinstatement and airing of charges.

The question an ANA member-lawyer would like to ask former Judge Moss . . . In a court of law if he were charged with wrongdoing would he penalize the accuser or disqualify himself, leaving the trial to a disinterested court? . . . Here is the parallel—I charged the ANA officers, but the accused expelled the accuser . . . The Commie Way or the American Way?

If you will play ball—that is what Charles Ruby, reelected Board Member said to me just before I left Milwaukee. That is what another Board Member said to Dr. Wild at the San Francisco Convention. Neither one of us wants to play their kind of ball.

And for the future?—Another Numismatic Association—The stamp collectors did it, by enrolling 4,000 members in the first year—1949-1950. Plans will be announced as soon as they are formulated for an association by collectors—for collectors. Thanks, many thanks, for your confidence and support—support that is not to be judged by the elections figures.

DOUBLE IMPRESSIONS (Continued)

Arrival at Tulln Airport, 18 miles outside of Vienna, still the drab little American Airstrip . . . As this is the only allied strip, Vienna could never have an airlift operations similar to Operation Vittles in Berlin . . . The invitation to ride in a big American Buick by a civilian employee was eagerly accepted, my bags following later . . . The disappointment in being whisked a mile a minute through the Russian Sector which precluded closer observation of surroundings . . . After the first day in a disappointing hotel transferred to the Krantz Ambassador, really deluxe, now that five of its six stories have been rebuilt . . . The city full of American, English, French and Italian tourists, attracted no doubt, by the inexpensive living . . . The American propaganda making a miserable showing next to the Russian . . . For every ERP poster there are 20 sponsored by Russian agencies . . . The walls of the Danube Canal with huge 6-foot letters in white saying, "AMI (Americans) GO HOME"—"STAY OUT OF KOREA"—"GARY DAVIS", etc. . . . The many wrecks of various type of craft in the canal untouched since they were bombed by the Allies including the Russians . . . Being accosted Sunday by a young chap whom I had met for the first time at my sister's wedding in Paris . . . Together we walked several miles to the Volks' Prater, a summer playground . . . The main attractions are the Reisenrad, a monster Ferris Wheel, made famous by Orson Welles in his picture, 'The Third Man' . . . Each car accommodates 30 passengers, and the wheel itself is probably eight times higher than anything in the States—a wonderful engineering achievement.
